UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

COMPASS GROUP USA, INC., a Delaware corporation, and MAZZONE HOSPITALITY, LLC, a New York limited liability company, v.

Plaintiffs,

MATTHEW MAZZONE, an individual, SUZY MAZZONE, an individual, and MAZZONE WEDDING GROUP, LLC a New York limited liability company, Defendants.

Case No. 1:21-cv-801 (BKS/ML)

COMPLAINT FOR UNFAIR COMPETITION, TRADEMARK
DILUTION, AND UNFAIR AND DECEPTIVE TRADE PRACTICES

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

Plaintiffs Compass Group USA, Inc. (“Compass”) and Mazzone Hospitality, LLC (“MH LLC”) (collectively, “Plaintiffs”), by and through undersigned counsel, for their complaint against defendants Matthew Mazzone (“Mr. Mazzone”), Suzy Mazzone (“Mrs. Mazzone”), and Mazzone Wedding Group, LLC (“Mazzone Wedding Group”) (collectively, “Defendants”) for false designation of origin, unfair competition, and state trademark infringement, state trademark dilution, and false and deceptive claims, plead and allege as follows:

NATURE AND BASIS OF THE ACTION

1. Compass is a leading foodservice and support service company, having earned a reputation for its offering of large-scale corporate catering, stadium concessions, and food service for, among others, the education and healthcare communities.
2. Compass expanded its services in 2017 to include wedding and events catering through Compass’s acquisition of Mazzone Hospitality and Mazzone Catering (the “Acquisition”), which were started by Angelo Mazzone in the Albany, New York area in 1980.
3. Through the Acquisition, Plaintiffs became owners of all rights in the names, trademarks, trade names, service marks, logos, insignias, and designations MAZZONE HOSPITALITY and MAZZONE CATERING (the “MAZZONE” Marks). Although the ownership of the business changed upon the Acquisition, Plaintiffs, working closely with Angelo Mazzone, continue to offer the same unsurpassed events and quality catering services long offered under the MAZZONE Marks.

4. Plaintiffs recently became aware that Angelo Mazzone’s son, Defendant Matthew Mazzone (who previously worked for his father’s business and then for Plaintiffs following the Acquisition), and his wife Defendant Suzy Mazzone, have started, in the Albany, New York area, a competing wedding and events business using the names Mazzone Wedding Group and Mazzone Weddings. Defendants advertise this competing business as being “family owned and operated,” tout Mr. Mazzone’s prior experience with Mazzone Hospitality, and use the confusingly similar service marks MAZZONE WEDDING GROUP and MAZZONE WEDDINGS (the “MAZZONE WEDDING GROUP Marks”) in promoting their competing business.

5. Plaintiffs bring this action to stop Defendants from continuing to unlawfully misappropriate the valuable service marks, trade names, and designations owned by Plaintiffs and used by Plaintiffs in offering the trend-setting and high-quality wedding and events services that Plaintiffs, and their predecessors in interest, have long provided in the Albany, New York area under the MAZZONE Marks.

6. More specifically, Plaintiffs assert claims under the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a), state common law, and Section 349 and 360-1 of New York General Business Law against Defendants, and seek preliminary and permanent injunctive relief and damages relating to Defendants’ unauthorized and unlawful use of the MAZZONE WEDDING Marks in connection with hospitality and event services.

7. Unless Defendants' infringing acts are preliminarily and permanently enjoined, Plaintiffs will suffer irreparable injury for which there is no adequate remedy at law.

PARTIES

8. Plaintiff Compass Group USA, Inc. is a corporation organized under the law of the State of Delaware with a place of business at 2400 Yorkmont Road, Charlotte, North Carolina 28217.

9. Plaintiff Mazzone Hospitality, LLC is a limited liability company organized under the law of the State of New York, with a place of business at 2400 Yorkmont Road, Charlotte, North Carolina 28217. Mazzone Hospitality a subsidiary of Compass Group.

10. On information and belief, Defendant Mazzone Wedding Group, LLC is a limited liability company organized under the law of the State of New York with its principal place of business at 743 Albany Shaker Road, Latham, New York 12110, and is engaged in the business of catering and hospitality services in interstate commerce in and around the area of Albany, New York.

11. On information and belief, Defendants Matthew Mazzone and Suzy Mazzone are individuals residing at 2 Lavant Lane, Bunt Hills, New York 12027. On information and belief, Mr. Mazzone and Mrs. Mazzone are members and managers of Mazzone Wedding Group and, as such, have the right and ability to supervise Mazzone Wedding Group's infringing activities, actually do direct and supervise Mazzone Wedding Group's infringing activities, and also have a direct financial interest in such activities.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

12. The Court has subject matter jurisdiction over the federal false designation of origin and unfair competition claims pursuant to the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 1121 and 1125(a), and 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1338(a) and (b). The Court has supplemental jurisdiction over the claims arising under state law pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367.

13. The Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendants because, upon information and belief, Defendants are present and doing business in the State of New York either directly or through their agents or, alternatively, because Defendants are subject to personal jurisdiction under the principles set forth in New York Civil Practice Law and Rules § 302.

14. Venue is appropriate in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391 because Defendants are subject to personal jurisdiction in this Judicial District and because a substantial part of the events giving rise to Plaintiffs' claims occurred in this Judicial District.

ALLEGATIONS COMMON TO ALL CLAIMS

A. The MAZZONE Brand and Plaintiffs' Rights in the MAZZONE Marks

15. Mazzone Hospitality and Mazzone Catering trace their roots to 1980, when Angelo Mazzone purchased Peggy's restaurant in Schenectady, New York. Angelo Mazzone grew the business to offer not only restaurant services but to also provide catering.

16. Based on his desire to offer catering services on an even larger scale, in 1988, Angelo Mazzone purchased and renovated Glen Sanders Mansion, a historic mansion on the banks of the Mohawk River, in Scotia, New York, which is about twenty miles west of Albany, New York, and later added an inn to the mansion. The mansion quickly became known as a premiere wedding and events venue, providing guests with full-service catering and planning, as well as lodging, for weddings and receptions and business meetings and events.

17. Following the purchase of Glen Sanders Mansion, Angelo Mazzone also started providing catering at off-site events, and over time became the exclusive caterer at many large venues in Upstate, New York, including Hall of Springs in Saratoga, Empire State Plaza in Albany, Prime at Saratoga National, Fasig-Tipton in Saratoga Springs, Key Hall at Proctors in Schenectady, 90 State in Albany, and Hilton Garden Inn-Clifton Park.

18. Angelo Mazzone built a reputation on sourcing the highest quality ingredients, a commitment to excellent service, a passion for providing people with an unforgettable dining experience, and a dedication to giving back to the local community.

19. Angelo Mazzone grew Mazzone Hospitality to become a culinary empire in the Upstate, New York area. It has been characterized as “the dominant restaurant and catering company in the Capital Region” (Capitol Region Chamber, May 11, 2017), and the “largest local caterer” (The Daily Gazette, January 16, 2013) by the press. Moreover, the press has called Angelo Mazzone “a dining powerhouse in the Capital Region” (Times Union, July 11, 2017) and “the Capital Region’s most recognized restaurateur” (Business Review, November 18, 2011), and Angelo Mazzone and his businesses have won numerous awards.

20. After decades of hard work in building the highly-respected and well-known MAZZONE brand, in 2017 Angelo Mazzone decided to sell his catering and executive events businesses, including the MAZZONE Marks, to a fellow leader in the foodservice industry, Plaintiffs.

21. On May 8, 2017, Angelo Mazzone, by and through his companies Mazzone Management Group, Ltd. and Mazzone Management, Inc. (the “Mazzone Entities”), entered into an asset purchase agreement with Plaintiffs for the sale of the Mazzone Hospitality and Mazzone Catering businesses (the “Asset Purchase Agreement”).

22. The terms of the sale in the Asset Purchase Agreement provide for the transfer of certain intellectual property from Angelo Mazzone and the Mazzone Entities to Plaintiffs, including “[a]ll rights, title and interest of Sellers in any inventions, trade secrets, know-how, recipes, proprietary processes and formulae, and similar information relating primarily to [Plaintiffs], including any trade names, trademarks, service marks, any applications and registrations therefor, all registered and unregistered copyrights, internet web sites, social media presences and internet domain names owned and used by Sellers as of the Closing Date related to the Purchased Business, all as listed on Schedule 1(d).” Schedule 1(d) of the Asset Purchase Agreement entitled “Transferred Intellectual Property” specifically enumerates the following trade names: (1) Mazzone Catering and (2) Mazzone Hospitality.

23. There is no question, therefore, that by virtue of the Asset Purchase Agreement, Plaintiffs own the Mazzone Entities’ rights, and all associated goodwill, in the MAZZONE Marks under which Plaintiffs currently advertise, market, offer, and provide hospitality and catering services, including wedding and event planning and catering.

24. Following the acquisition of assets from Angelo Mazzone and the Mazzone Entities, Plaintiffs have continued offering, in interstate commerce in and around the Albany, New York, area, the same high-quality wedding and event planning and catering services under the trade names Mazzone Hospitality and Mazzone Catering, with Angelo Mazzone still closely involved in the business.

25. Plaintiffs promote their catering events services through various media, including on their Mazzone Hospitality and Mazzone Catering websites at <https://mazzonehospitality.com/> and <https://mazzonecatering.com/>, the websites for the venues where Mazzone Hospitality is the exclusive caterer, social media, in wedding magazines, and at wedding shows. Printouts of example pages from Plaintiffs’ Mazzone Hospitality and Mazzone Catering websites are attached as Exhibits A and B, respectively. Even though Plaintiffs’ services under the MAZZONE Marks are offered primarily in and around the Upstate New York, area, Plaintiffs' customers and vendors include persons from outside the State of New York, and Plaintiffs' activities occur in interstate "commerce" as that term is defined in Section 45 of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. §1127.

26. Based on Plaintiffs' and their predecessors-in-interest's long use, advertising, and promotion of services under the MAZZONE Marks, the MAZZONE Marks have acquired enormous goodwill and have come to be immediately identified with Plaintiffs as the source of their hospitality and catering services.

27. In addition to common law rights from extensive use, Compass owns the following pending U.S. federal trademark applications for the MAZZONE Marks:

- MAZZONE HOSPITALITY (App. Ser. No. 90/579,735) in connection with "catering services"; and
- MAZZONE CATERING (App. Ser. No. 90/579,700) in connection with "catering services."

Copies of these applications are attached as Exhibit C.

B. Defendants' Unlawful Acts

28. Matthew Mazzone was an employee of his father's company prior to the Acquisition by Plaintiffs, and became an employee of Plaintiffs after the Acquisition.

29. In connection with the Asset Purchase Agreement, Plaintiffs entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Mazzone, providing for a generous compensation package including an annual salary, bonus plan, and car allowance. The agreement also included a prohibition of Mr. Mazzone competing with Plaintiffs or soliciting Plaintiffs' customers following Mr. Mazzone's departure from Plaintiffs' employ.

30. On or around April 7, 2020, Mr. Mazzone left the employment of Mazzone Hospitality and signed a separation agreement that prohibited him from soliciting Plaintiffs' customers or employees for a competing business for eighteen months.

31. On information and belief, a week after Mr. Mazzone left Mazzone Hospitality, he registered the domain name MazzoneWeddings.com, despite the non-compete and non-solicitation provisions under his employment and separation agreements with Plaintiffs.

32. On information and belief, sometime in early 2021, Mr. Mazzone and Mrs. Mazzone launched Mazzone Wedding Group in Upstate New York, in or around the same vicinity as Mazzone Catering and Mazzone Hospitality, and started using the MAZZONE WEDDING Marks in connection with offering wedding and event planning and catering services. On information and belief, Defendants' services under the MAZZONE WEDDING Marks are offered in interstate "commerce" as that term is defined in Section 45 of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. §1127.

33. On information and belief, Mr. Mazzone is the owner and President of Mazzone Wedding Group, and his co-owner, Mrs. Mazzone, is the Vice President.

34. On information and belief, Mr. Mazzone and Mrs. Mazzone selected the MAZZONE WEDDING Marks, and in their roles as owners and President and Vice President of Mazzone Wedding, have authorized and approved of the use of those Marks.

35. In adopting the trade name Mazzone Wedding Group and the MAZZONE WEDDING Marks, Mr. Mazzone and Mrs. Mazzone were clearly aware of Plaintiffs' use of and strong prior rights in the MAZZONE Marks, based on Mr. Mazzone's prior employment with his father and Plaintiffs, as well as their knowledge of the Asset Purchase Agreement.

36. Defendants nevertheless chose a trade name and service marks confusingly similar to Plaintiffs' MAZZONE Marks, in an attempt to trade off of, and free ride upon, the goodwill in the MAZZONE brand, and to create an association with Plaintiffs' business.

37. Defendants' intent to create an association with the MAZZONE Marks and Plaintiffs is clear in Defendants' marketing.

38. Indeed, in promoting their competing services on the Mazzone Wedding Group website, <https://www.mazzoneweddings.com>, Defendants tout Mr. Mazzone's experience as "Former CFO & COO of Mazzone Hospitality," and reference Mr. Mazzone "[j]oining the family business at a young age." The website further discusses Mr. Mazzone's experience in "the family business" and advertises Mazzone Wedding Group as a "family owned and operated catering company." A printout of Defendants' Mazzone Wedding Group website is attached as Exhibit D.

39. Unsurprisingly, Defendants' use of the Mazzone Wedding Group trade name and MAZZONE WEDDING Marks has resulted in instances of actual confusion.

40. For example, a vendor emailed both Mazzone Hospitality and Defendants, apparently believing the two companies were related.

41. Similarly, a photographer tagged both Mazzone Hospitality and Defendants in a post about a wedding catered by Plaintiffs.

C. Plaintiffs' Attempts to Resolve This Dispute

42. On March 10, 2021, Plaintiffs' in-house counsel sent Mr. Mazzone a letter reminding him of his post-employment obligations to Plaintiffs, including to refrain from: (i) using Plaintiffs' confidential information, soliciting or selling to Plaintiffs' customers, and (ii) soliciting or hiring Plaintiffs' employees. The letter also warned Mr. Mazzone of Plaintiffs' concern that his recently-launched competing wedding business would breach his contractual post-employment obligations.

43. On March 22, 2021, Plaintiffs' in-house counsel sent Mr. Mazzone another letter, expressing Plaintiffs' concerns that Mr. Mazzone's use of the confusingly similar Mazzone Wedding Group mark was likely to cause consumer confusion and would violate Plaintiffs' trademark rights under federal and state law. The letter requested that Mr. Mazzone cease and desist use of the name "Mazzone" or any substantially similar mark in connection with a catering business in New York.

44. When Plaintiffs did not receive satisfactory responses to the letters from in-house counsel, outside counsel for Plaintiffs sent an additional letter on May 7, 2021, again requesting that Mr. Mazzone change the name of his business and warning that Plaintiffs would commence legal action, including the filing of a motion for preliminary injunction, absent compliance.

45. Despite Plaintiffs' repeated warnings and attempts to reach a resolution without the need for litigation, Defendants continue to use the MAZZONE WEDDING Marks in violation of Plaintiffs' rights.

FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF

Unfair Competition and False Designation of Origin Under 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a)

46. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege the averments contained in foregoing Paragraphs as if fully set forth herein again.

48. By their unauthorized use of the service marks, trade names, and designations “Mazzone Wedding Group” and “Mazzone Weddings” in connection with their hospitality and event planning services and on marketing and advertising materials, Defendants have falsely designated the origin of their services, and competed unfairly with Plaintiffs, in violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a).

60. On information and belief, Defendants' acts of common law trademark infringement and unfair competition have been done willfully and deliberately and Defendants have profited and been unjustly enriched by sales that Defendants would not otherwise have made but for their unlawful conduct.

61. Defendants' acts described above have caused injury and damages to Plaintiffs, and have caused irreparable injury to Plaintiffs' goodwill and reputation and, unless enjoined, will cause further irreparable injury, whereby Plaintiffs have no adequate remedy at law.

A bride and groom are captured in a joyful moment, cutting a multi-layered wedding cake. The bride, wearing a white lace dress and a floral crown, is laughing as she holds the knife. The groom, in a white shirt and dark tie, stands beside her, looking down at the cake. The cake is elegantly decorated with white frosting and gold accents, resting on a rustic wooden stand. The background is a warm, light-colored wooden wall, and a small 'LOVE' banner is visible in the lower left corner.
